Clochard (Italian Edition) Daniele Sforza

Quando arriva l'inverno, il popolo del silenzio soffre.

Immerso nella propria solitudine, con una bottiglia di vino a riscaldare il cuore e spazzare via i ricordi.

La strada non rifiuta né disprezza il popolo dei Miserabili. La strada accoglie tutti, senza distinzioni: i reietti, i derelitti, i disperati.

Ma non promette niente.

Li nutre, li violenta, li uccide, li ama. E così, fino alla prossima alba.

Il Professore, Toni, Mosè, Samaras, Annie Mae, Cowboy, Rosso, Dejan si alternano e s'incontrano in queste storie, suggerendoci di soffermare lo sguardo su una realtà che spesso facciamo finta di non vedere.

"Clochard" è un romanzo corale, che non lascia spazio a patetismi né a commiserazione. Dipinge delle vite al confine con la morte, e le riveste della dovuta dignità.
