The Stones Are Still Singing: A poetic narrative for Christmas and Easter Barbara Todd

More than a collection of beautiful poems, this book resources schools and churches with a vivid narrative that runs across both Christmas and Easter. As a former primary school teacher and church worship co-ordinator, the author brilliantly retells the two most powerful stories of the Bible, making these poems ideal for special assemblies, Christmas plays and carol and Easter services.

The book is neither over simplistic for adults nor too difficult for children, but will add fresh inspiration into any public or private reading. The poems express the clarity and depth these special seasons bring. In some, the author has written as though in character, bringing a new perspective and intimacy to these most famous of stories.
