When God Speaks To My Heart Rosalie Willis

People from all walks of life – long for a personal and significant connection with God.

We frequently look for God to speak to us in a burning bush, a strike of lightning, or a talking donkey. Sure, you might snicker. And yet we often fall back on the perception that God only spoke to huge men of faith as recorded in the Bible – totally overlooking the fact that God continues to speak to us through His Word , the Scripture. These are His words to us, His promises to guide, comfort, minister and bring peace to humanity.

These unique entries—one for each day of the year—are based upon scripture as conversational affirmations from God, with prayers of response for the reader, and with room for personal journaling.

Have you ever wished you had a friend you could talk to about anything? Someone who would listen to your deepest secrets, thoughts, and feelings?

When God Speaks to My Heart, is more than just a book, it's a journey of discovery into a relationship with God, revealing that He is both sovereign and awesome and still yet the best Friend anyone could ever hope to have.
