Jésus selon Pascal (Jésus et Jésus-Christ) (French Edition) Jean-Christophe De Nadaï

Le constat semble entendu : chez Pascal, Jésus-Christ est au centre de tout. Il convenait pourtant d'affiner cette affirmation qui restait encore pour une large part à étayer. S'appuyant sur les récents travaux de Philippe Sellier et Jean Mesnard, le frère dominicain Jean-Christophe de Nadaï offre ici en neuf études une exploration inédite de nombre d'écrits de Pascal. Leur commentaire dégage les quatre grandes époques d'une réflexion pascalienne puisant constamment à la contemplation de la mission du Sauveur. Si le cheminement de Pascal, redevable à Bérulle, suit un long temps les voies attendues de l'augustino-jansénisme en considérant prioritairement le Rédempteur selon sa nature divine, l'auteur montre que la pensée pascalienne ménage finalement une place éminente à l'humanité du Christ envisagée pour elle-même, et donc à la figure de Jésus.

Tout lecteur intéressé par l'œuvre de Pascal, dont la philosophie et l'intelligence de l'Univers sont commandées par son modèle de l'Incarnation, est invité à emprunter le parcours qui mène à cette découverte. Pour ce faire, il sera muni de précieux instruments de lecture : présentation de chacun des chapitres, table chronologique des écrits de Pascal, bibliographie, index des matières et des auteurs, table des matières détaillée.

Une collection de référence en christologie sous la direction de Monseigneur Doré.
