Histoire du véritable Gribouille (French Edition) George Sand

Il y avait une fois un père et une mère qui avaient un fils. Le fils s'appelait Gribouille, la mère s'appelait Brigoule et le père Bredouille. Le père et la mère avaient six autres enfants, trois garçons et trois filles, ce qui faisait sept, en comptant Gribouille qui était le plus petit. Le père Bredouille était garde-chasse du roi de ce pays-là, ce qui le mettait bien à son aise. Il avait une jolie maison au beau milieu de la forêt, avec un joli jardin dans une jolie clairière, au bord d'un joli ruisseau qui passait tout au travers du bois. Il avait le droit de chasser, de pêcher, de couper des arbres pour se chauffer, de cultiver un bon morceau de terre, et encore avait-il de l'argent du roi, tous les ans, pour garder sa chasse et soigner sa faisanderie; mais le méchant homme ne se trouvait pas encore assez riche, et il ne faisait que voler et rançonner les voyageurs, vendre le gibier du roi, et envoyer en prison les pauvres gens qui venaient ramasser trois brins de bois mort, tandis qu'il laissait les riches, qui le payaient bien, chasser dans les forêts royales tout leur souï. Le roi, qui était vieux et qui ne chassait plus guère, n'y voyait que du feu.
