Edition of the present Work the Editor think it right to state that, while they cannot but consider the number of Hymns which it contained in its previous form, to be sufficient in itself for ordinary Church use yet they are conscious it might not be deemed extensive enough for the requirements of choice. For this reason they have increased it from 333. to 404, by which means it is believed that ample scope for selection will now be afforded to all those who approve of the general principles of the Book while it has afforded to themselves an opportunity of improving it both in its matter and form. Among the Hymns appropriated to particular occasions there will be found 10 for Mornings 15 for Evening, 8 for Sunday, 15 for Advent, 10 for Christmas, 9 for Epiphany 22 for Lent, with 28 for the period from Pascha Sunday to Easter, 14 for Easter, 10 for Ascension-tide, 10 for Whitstun-tide, 8 for Trinity-tide, 12 for Holy Communion, 8 for Baptism and Confirmation, 7 for Harvest, 6 for Missions, and 6 Proper. Besides these, there is at least one special Hymn for every Saint's day in the year, while 200 will be found available for General purposes by a reference to the Index of Subjects, where, in most cases, choice may be greatly enlarged. Of these Hymns, which include 28 Psalms, 304 are of English origin, the remaining 72 being Translations by various Authors from the Greek, Latin, and German. In making the whole selection care has been taken to avoid every thought, which did not seem to be in strict accordance with the obvious meaning, and genuine spirit of the Book of Common Prayer. It is humbly hoped that the true Catholicism of the Anglican Church will be found reflected in the pages of the Anglican Hymn Book. With reference to the question of Text, the Hymns have been re-produced, as far as possible, in their original purity, though it was frequently necessary to correct
