Palmares (Portuguese Edition) Flávio dos Santos Gomes

Palmares foi a maior e mais conhecida comunidade de negros fugitivos da história das Américas. Formado por vários agrupamentos interdependentes e articulados no Nordeste açucareiro de Pernambuco e Alagoas, Palmares surgiu no final do século XVI e permaneceu até o século XVIII a representar esperança aos cativos e ameaça aos senhores. O historiador Flávio Gomes narra a história de Palmares, desde os primeiros tempos e a luta constante com as autoridades até a morte de Zumbi e seu fim. O autor desfaz mitos e muda o olhar que até então se tinha sobre este tema tão relevante na história do Brasil.
