DIPLOMA MANIA!

Graduation Time for Sierra Jensen in this Popular Teen Series from Bestselling Author Robin Jones Gunn

The future never seems larger than during graduation. High school is over and the world awaits. Whether headed to college or into a job, big changes are on the way. Sierra Jensen and her friends have been waiting a long time and the day is finally here. The gown is ordered, the tassel is on, and excitement is in the air.

In Closer Than Ever Sierra is thrilled because not only is she hosting a party on the big night, but also because Paul, her friend from Scotland, is supposed to arrive sometime that evening. When the night of the party arrives and Paul doesn't show, Sierra wonders if she has imagined more to their relationship than there really is. Suddenly, news breaks of a plane crash out of London and Sierra and her friends are deeply troubled. As the hours tick by, not even Paul's family has heard anything and Sierra is forced to spend a sleepless night wrestling through tears and fears that the worst has happened.

While Sierra wonders if God would take Paul away right when he is filled with plans for serving the Lord, she must learn firsthand what it truly means to trust God and accept his will for her life.
