Each poem you are about to read has a theme of the issues of life. The different waves and stages of living are found on each page, with every poem having an individual truth in itself. Polston's poetry is deep, insightful, and thought-provoking. He uses many metaphors to drive home messages about Jesus Christ, His church, and how to be victorious in every season of life. Gems are hidden in each stanza if we are willing to search them out and open our hearts.
