Tesouros do Morro do Castelo (Portuguese Edition) Carlos Kessel

Uma irresistível aventura em busca dos lendários tesouros escondidos pelos jesuítas no Morro do Castelo, em pleno centro do Rio de Janeiro. Seria verdade que, na pressa da fuga, em 1759, muito ouro teria sido deixado para trás, em esconderijos localizados embaixo das construções? O que importa é que muita gente acreditava que sim, e por quase 200 anos, até o arrasamento do morro em 1922, diversas escavações (clandestinas ou autorizadas) buscaram – e por vezes acharam – os subterrâneos e seu ouro.

O arquiteto e historiador Carlos Kessel explora um rico e heterogêneo acervo de documentos inéditos, onde as fronteiras entre a documentação autêntica e as falsificações, entre a reportagem e a ficção folhetinesca, se confundem. Este livro lança luz sobre um aspecto pouco divulgado da história.

Inclui:

- . Boxes explicativos com acontecimentos históricos.
- . Mais de 40 ilustrações, como o mapa das galerias subterrâneas e fotos da época.
- . Uma lista de leituras complementares sobre o tema.
